Game On!

Parties, family dinners, and active teens let loose in this go-with-the-flow home. Rooms spill into each other for plenty of togetherness and elbowroom.

Want to see Melissa Kelly work a little magic? Just invite 20 of her girlfriends over for a card party and start dealing. No one will be left out, even though hands are being played in the family room, the dining area, and the kitchen. That's because Melissa and husband Tim set up their South Carolina home with three casual, comfortable gathering areas all open to one another so
